

DÉBORAH MARINO

1992- Born in Lille, France.

Lives and works in Brussels, Belgium.

Déborah Marino is a young French graphic designer and visual artist. She attended Applied Arts and Textile school (E.S.AA.T) in Roubaix, France and graduated in 2016 from Royal Academy of Fine Arts in Brussels. She creates her work by mixing techniques and artistic fields as illustration, photography, displays, publishing and textile. She mainly focuses on social topics with the desire to bring people closer to artistic space using everyday issues and thoughts. Memory and preservation are always parts of her works concerns. Her graduation projects "Human Warmth" (2015), about family memories and "Lost + Found" (2016) which talks about social sharing through lost objects will be shown during two collaborative exhibitions at ifa laboratory.

"Lost + Found" won ifa Laboratory award 2016.
